

Finally somebody who listens to me!

First I should refer you to this post from back in May because else the rest of this post might not make any sense to you. Today I found out that a good friend did not see the show either! And he's my age. At first I wanted to punch him in the face for it, but turns out that he's now working day and night to binge through it and I just received a message that said he's really enjoying the show. Well, I'll keep the punch for other time then, cause he needs to be punched for other reasons as well. I'm just happy that he finally choose for himself to delve in to this adventure we call Breaking Bad.
